I would like to thank all of our conference participants and journal contributors for their support and intellectual engagement with this year's topic. To our keynote speakers, Dudley Andrew and Tyler Stovall, we graduate students extend our thanks for their enthusiastic attendance and engaging keynote addresses. Thank you as well to all the graduate student volunteers from the Department of French and Francophone Studies for their contributions at various stages of conference planning and journal publication. In particular, I would like to thank my vice-chairs, Bob Hudson and Trevor Merrill, without whom this conference and journal would not have been possible. The assistance from Department Chair Dominic Thomas, along with the administrative expertise of Cyndia Soloway and Gina White has been invaluable. Much appreciation to the generous sponsors in the UCLA community; your continued support makes the annual conference possible. Finally, my thanks go to the Graduate Students Association for funding the publication of this journal.
